

Interdisciplinary Approaches to Dementia and Aging

The Lecture Series of the Phenomenology of Dementia and Aging Network

Organization: Dr. Erik Norman Dzwiza-Ohlsen & Ragna Winniewski, a.r.t.e.s. Graduate School for the Humanities Cologne/Husserl Archive Cologne
Link: <https://uni-koeln.zoom.us/j/91365214213?pwd=cWFRQnZKcjlMY3RzNEdISHMzUogGUTog>
Meeting-ID: 913 6521 4213
Password: 252346
Time: 14.00-15.00 CET

Date	Talk
01.11.2021	Pia Kontos (Toronto): "Critical Intersections of Embodiment, Citizenship, and Relationality: Towards Rethinking of Creativity and Dementia"
10.01.2022	Steven Sabat (Washington): "Forget 'Memory Loss': People with Dementia Can Make New Memories"
07.02.2022	Jo Reichertz (Duisburg-Essen): "Kommunikation und Demenz"
14.03.2022	Lars-Christer Hydén (Linköping): "Intercorporeal Collaboration in Late-Stage Dementia"
04.04.2022	Jan Sonntag (Hamburg): "Atmosphärensensibilität Demenzbetroffener am Beispiel der Musik"
02.05.2022	Andreas Kruse (Heidelberg): TBA
13.06.2022	Klaus Fließbach (Bonn): "Clinical Spectrum of Neurodegenerative Dementias"
11.07.2022	Thomas Fuchs (Heidelberg): "The Bodily Continuity of the Self. Body Memory and Self-Care in Dementia"
05.09.2022	Lisa Käll (Stockholm): "'I have, so to speak, lost myself' – Dementia, Ambiguous Loss and Subjectivity"
10.10.2022	Danielle Petherbridge: TBA
07.11.2022	Christian Tewes (Mannheim): "Embodied Personhood. Vulnerability and Dignity in Alzheimer's Disease"
05.12.2022	Heidi E. Hamilton: "Intersubjective Meaning-Making and Language in Dementia"