

SUMMER SCHOOL

Transcendental Idealism in Post-Kantian German Philosophy

Cologne, June 22-26, 2020

The summer school will give an overview over the main movements in Post-Kantian German Philosophy. It will be led by professors from Marquette University and University of Cologne plus invited guest speakers, who are distinguished scholars in these fields of research from nearby universities. It will give an historical overview over the main developments since Kant, but will also engage in current debates on the issues first raised by thinkers in the classical German tradition.

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

If you want to participate in the summer school, please send an informal letter of application with your name, university affiliation and a short résumé to transcendentalidealism2020@gmail.com before March 31, 2020.

KEYNOTES

Niklas Grouls (Cologne)
Sandra Lehmann (Vienna)
Sebastian Luft (Marquette)
Rainer Schäfer (Bonn)
Alexander Schnell (Wuppertal)

VENUE

a.r.t.e.s. Graduate School for the Humanities Cologne, Cologne (Germany)

ORGANIZERS

Elio Antonucci, Marco Cavallaro
Niklas Grouls, Sebastian Luft

